TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This letter is to recommend NGUYEN VAN CHAN as an excellent combat interpreter. He has been employed by this team for the past four months and has shown himself to be a hardworking, industrious and loyal worker.

He is leaving our employ of his own volition for personal reasons. His loss will be keenly felt by this team because he performed in an outstanding manner, both on combat operations and also in his routine duties about the camp itself.

Any further inquiry regarding his qualifications will be welcomed by this team.

19 April 1968

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to recommend Mr. Nguyen Van Chan. Mr. Chan was my employee from 29 July 1967 until 13 April 1968, when he departed for Army duty. He was employed CORDS/USAID as an Area Specialist. Although his primary duty was that of interpreter, Mr. Chan also prepared complex economic reports, labor reports and Public Administration reports in English. He additionally performed very important research and rural survey duties. Mr. Chan performed his duties throughout Vinh Long province without hesitation in the face of danger.

Mr. Chan was a most valuable employee to CORDS/Vinh Long. He speaks excellent English and is a highly intelligent, capable and brave individual. I recommend him without qualifications for duties involving his many important abilities and qualifications.

Alton C. Straughan, Jr. Asst. Officer/NLD
